Now Kerala lures tourists with 'Diamond Tourism'

IANS Wednesday 10th October, 2007

Kerala is offering a unique package of free stay in a five-star hotel whenever one buys diamonds.

Kerala Tourism Minister Kodyeri Balakrishnan Wednesday launched Diamond Tourism, offering tourists one week's free stay in a five-star hotel in Kerala if they bought diamonds worth Euros 3,000, 6,000 and 10,000.

The scheme has been launched by Sunny Diamonds, a company which has been in the diamond business for over 12 years.

Speaking at the launch, P.P. Sunny, the owner of the Sunny Diamonds, said the diamonds on sale meet all international quality standards and are sold for prices that cannot be matched by any retailers across

The last 6 years have seen an explosion of Internet use in Syria, however the government is censoring its use, detaining users who post comments critical of the government, and restricting posters from making anonymous comments. (Click on photo for full story).
